

THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR

WASHINGTON

MAR -9 1931

Mr. George M. Bacon,
State Engineer of Utah,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

My dear Mr. Bacon:

In reply to your telegram of March 3, 1931 as to administration of water rights in Uintah basin, instructions have been issued to Director of Irrigation of the Indian Service, Mr. William S. Post, to proceed to Utah and recommend a workable plan of administration.

The Department is deeply concerned in measures to prevent friction or unnecessary expense in such matters and appreciates the courtesy of your communication.

Sincerely yours,

(Sgd.) RAY LYMAN WILBUR

Secretary.
